1997 Michigan Municipal Review Index

Award Competitions

CELEBRATION! 14th Annual Michigan Municipal Achievement Awards Competition. March 1997, pp. 71-75.

The Good Housekeeping Award for Women in Government. September/October 1997, p. 287.

Municipal Achievement Award winners forecast bright future for local government service, by Judi Lintott and many local officials. September/October 1997, pp. 288-305.

Communication

Communiqué: Ideas for municipal decision makers. January/February 1997, pp.

Creative marketing strategies for connecting with kids. Frank Benest and Debbie Thornton. July 1997, pp. 194-195.

13 ideas to reach kids through marketing. Frank Benest and Debbie Thornton. July 1997, pp. 195, 197.

Who you? Write for us? SURE! January/February 1997, p. 7.; May 1997, p. 140.

Economic Development

Turning old fashion values into modern retail marketing: How downtowns can compete with the giants — and win! Doyle G. Hyett and Dolores P. Palma. July 1997, pp. 220-222.

Education

Annual MML Legislative Conference an important aspect of a local official's "continuing education" Photos by Jeanette Westhead. June 1997, p. 165. [Photo Essay]

The civic sabbatical: Send your employees on a "learning vacation" to enrich your talent pool. Tod Newcombe. June 1997, pp. 166-167.

The Continuing Education Unit: Certifying your right to be recognized. Joan S. Hutchison. June 1997, p. 163.

Elected Officials Academy Update. Joan Hutchison. September/October 1997, p. 310.

Failure to train . . . Don't let it happen to you! Joan S. Hutchison. June 1997, p. 167.

Free lunch or sharing ideas? Joan S. Hutchison. August 1997, p. 263.

From training to improved performance. Joan S. Hutchison. August 1997, p. 263.

Is it "training" or "education"? Joan S. Hutchison. June 1997, p.159.

League trains thousands of elected officials each year, by Joan S. Hutchison. June 1997, pp. 162-163.

Lessons from the Far East: It's a small world, after all. Daniel G. Hobbs. June 1997, pp. 168-171.

MML establishes educational Academy: Elected officials encouraged to seek education to improve their community governing abilities. Joan S. Hutchison. June 1997, pp. 158-159.

On the horizon . . . On-site seminars . . . New videos available for loan. January/February 1997, p. 27.

Scheduled MML courses eligible for Elected Officials Academy credit. June 1997, p.160.

Environment

Environmental issues update: Bold changes in state policy yield positive results. State Representative James Mick Middaugh (R-Paw Paw). August 1997, pp. 242-243.

Getting our clean water act together. Dan Wolz. August 1997, pp. 244-245.

New Revolving Loan Fund provides financing for drinking water system improvements. Donald J. Stypula. August 1997, pp. 250-252.

Think twice about those tree grates. Barry M. Williams. August 1997, p. 253.

Thrifty Royal Oak administrator at the top of the heap. Michael McConnell. August 1997, p. 247.

To boldly go where no government has gone before: A common sense approach to environmental policy. State Senator Loren Bennett (R-Canton Township). August 1997, pp. 254.

Human Resources

Can you be sure you hired the right new employee for the job? Donald Sommerfeld. March, 1997, pp. 76-77.

Confused by the new alphabet soup in health care? Roselyn R. Parmenter. May 1997, p. 141.

Improving fire department diversity with reserves. Robyn Gorrell. July 1997, p. 225.

MML Legal Defense Fund provides assistance: Good News in Grandville labor relations decision. William C. Mathewson and Joseph W. Fremont. March 1997, pp. 70-71.

MML to offer Section 125 Plans for municipal employers. Tom Huntzicker. December 1997, pp. 404-405.

Selecting the best candidate for each job. Joseph W. Fremont. November 1997, p. 353

Insurance & Risk Management

Is you staff prepared to handle an emergency in city hall? Kevin C. Murphy. November 1997, pp. 354-355.

Fireworks tragedy in Charlevoix: Could it happen to you? Kurt Weiss. November 1977, p. 355.

Legislative changes will affect how you control unemployment costs. Jim Ward. June 1997, p. 174.

Midland uses employee safety program to lower workers comp costs. January/February 1997, pp. 28-29.

MML to offer Section 125 Plans for municipal employers. Tom Huntzicker. December 1997, pp. 404-405.

Understanding the important differences in insurance policies. Robert J. Kish, A.R.M. August 1997, p. 261.

Leadership

Elected Officials Academy Update. Joan Hutchison. September/October 1997, p. 310.

10 Habits of highly successful councils, by Carl H. Neu, Jr. November 1997, pp. 328-333.

A value-based prototype for 21st Century leadership, by Sheila Murray Bethel, November 1997, pp. 336-337.

Legislative Issues

A committed investment in Michigan transportation. State Sen. Philip E. Hoffman, November 1997, p. 351.

Election news wrap-up: Women's gains in local elections add real political visibility to issues. From the National League of Cities, January/February 1997, p.

The federal scene. William C. Mathewson. March 1997, pp. 64-66.

From start to finish: How municipal "lobbyists" made a difference in Lansing. Donald J. Stypula, March 1997, pp. 50-54.

"Legislative Coordinators" needed to spread the word to other local officials. March 1997, p. 60.

League President Guido leads on telecommunications. William C. Mathewson. March 1997, pp. 68-69.

Local, judicial candidates now subject to contribution limits. Michigan Secretary of State Candice S. Miller. November 1997, p. 323

Meet the MML Advocacy Team . . .March 1997. pp. 49, 52, 57, 65.

New legislation brings good changes for employers. John McCann, September/October 1997, p. 306.

New opportunities for fighting the good fight. Dan Gilmartin, March 1997, pp. 48-49.

The local message: Updating "back to the basics". Scott Schrager, March 1997, pp. 56-57.

Reckoning with term limits. Paul Hillegonds. March 1997, pp. 58-59.

Road funding agreement yields additional $40 million for municipalities. Donald J. Stypula. August 1997, p. 248.

31st Annual Legislative Conference. January/February 1997, pp. 9-13 & March 1997, pp. 61-63.

32nd Annual Legislative Conference. December 1997, pp. 399-403.

Transportation plan bring money to local government. State Rep. Clark Harder, November 1997, p. 350

Management

The automated five-year financial model: An emerging financial and management tool. Mark Nottley. January/February 1997, pp. 19-22.

A buyer's market for management audits. Mark Nottley. March 1997, p. 78.

Exploring alternative revenue sources. Mark Nottley. May 1997, p. 139.

Municipal focus on classification and compensation (pay) systems. Mark Nottley. July 1997, p. 223.

Prerequisites for a merit pay approach. Mark Nottley. December 1997, p. 406.

Search for Excellence. Mark Nottley, September/October 1997, p. 319.

Michigan Municipal League

League honors supporters of local government. Joan S. Hutchison, pp. 397-398, 405.

Local officials convene to learn: MML hosts 99th annual convention. members of the Michigan Municipal Communicators. December 1997, pp. 374-396.

MML to offer Section 125 Plans for municipal employers. Tom Huntzicker. December 1997, pp. 404-405.

1996-97 Annual Report. November 1997, pp. 338-349.

Ortonville Village President Susan Bess elected MML president for 1997-98; Six new Trustees join MML Board of Directors. Joan S. Hutchison. December 1997, pp.372-373

Public Service & Volunteerism

Sage advice for village and city officials: Get involved and work together to accomplish common municipal goals. Michael A. Guido. March, 1997, p. 47.

Retirement Issues

A closer look at index funds in a retirement portfolio. John McCann. June 1997, p. 173.

Change ahead: Defined contribution issues for 1997 in Michigan. John McCann. January/February 1997, pp. 14-15.

New legislation brings good changes for employers. John McCann, September/October 1997, p. 306.

Technology

Be an URL'y Bird. Annette Drew Owens. May 1997, p. 131

Calling all pagers: Remote-controlled beacons improve safety for schoolchildren. Tod Newcombe. July 1997, p. 201.

The coding of compliance: Local software development turns into capital venture. Tod Newcombe. May 1997, pp. 136-137.

http://www.farmington.mi.us: Farmington's Web Site: Learning from experience. Joe Ohren, Ph.D. May 1997, pp. 126-129.

The key to parking: Digital meters and keys unlock meters for West Hollywood. Tod Newcombe. May 1997, pp. 134-135.

MML makes a big splash for officials who surf the Web! Colleen Layton. September/October 1997, pp. 282-283.

NLC and PTI team up to prevent problems associated with the Year 2000. May 1997, p. 138.

What information will local officials find in MML's Web Site? September/October 1997, p. 283.

Youth

Calling all pagers: Remote-controlled beacons improve safety for schoolchildren. Tod Newcombe. July 1997, p. 201.

Creative marketing strategies for connecting with kids. Frank Benest and Debbie Thornton. July 1997, pp. 194-195.

Full Tilt opens at full throttle: Battle Creek's amazing new entertainment mall. Cherise Brandell. July 1997, pp. 198-199.

Plumbing new talent: At-risk students help poor neighborhoods conserve water. Tod Newcombe, July 1997, p. 206.

Rochester Villas Apartments in partnership with Troy police. Nicolette M. Kaptur. July 1997, pp. 204-205.

13 ideas to reach kids through marketing. Frank Benest and Debbie Thornton. July 1997, pp. 195, 197.

Youth at Risk: Your community's future and its greatest challenge! Ritchie L. Coleman. July 1997, pp. 202-203. ❖

1997 Michigan Municipal Review Index

Award Competitions

CELEBRATION! 14th Annual Michigan Municipal Achievement Awards Competition. March 1997, pp. 71-75.

The Good Housekeeping Award for Women in Government. September/October 1997, p. 287.

Municipal Achievement Award winners forecast bright future for local government service, by Judi Lintott and many local officials. September/October 1997, pp. 288-305.

Communication

Communiqué: Ideas for municipal decision makers. January/February 1997, pp.

Creative marketing strategies for connecting with kids. Frank Benest and Debbie Thornton. July 1997, pp. 194-195.

13 ideas to reach kids through marketing. Frank Benest and Debbie Thornton. July 1997, pp. 195, 197.

Who you? Write for us? SURE! January/February 1997, p. 7.; May 1997, p. 140.

Economic Development

Turning old fashion values into modern retail marketing: How downtowns can compete with the giants — and win! Doyle G. Hyett and Dolores P. Palma. July 1997, pp. 220-222.

Education

Annual MML Legislative Conference an important aspect of a local official's "continuing education" Photos by Jeanette Westhead. June 1997, p. 165. [Photo Essay]

The civic sabbatical: Send your employees on a "learning vacation" to enrich your talent pool. Tod Newcombe. June 1997, pp. 166-167.

The Continuing Education Unit: Certifying your right to be recognized. Joan S. Hutchison. June 1997, p. 163.

Elected Officials Academy Update. Joan Hutchison. September/October 1997, p. 310.

Failure to train . . . Don't let it happen to you! Joan S. Hutchison. June 1997, p. 167.

Free lunch or sharing ideas? Joan S. Hutchison. August 1997, p. 263.

From training to improved performance. Joan S. Hutchison. August 1997, p. 263.

Is it "training" or "education"? Joan S. Hutchison. June 1997, p.159.

League trains thousands of elected officials each year, by Joan S. Hutchison. June 1997, pp. 162-163.

Lessons from the Far East: It's a small world, after all. Daniel G. Hobbs. June 1997, pp. 168-171.

MML establishes educational Academy: Elected officials encouraged to seek education to improve their community governing abilities. Joan S. Hutchison. June 1997, pp. 158-159.

On the horizon . . . On-site seminars . . . New videos available for loan. January/February 1997, p. 27.

Scheduled MML courses eligible for Elected Officials Academy credit. June 1997, p.160.

Environment

Environmental issues update: Bold changes in state policy yield positive results. State Representative James Mick Middaugh (R-Paw Paw). August 1997, pp. 242-243.

Getting our clean water act together. Dan Wolz. August 1997, pp. 244-245.

New Revolving Loan Fund provides financing for drinking water system improvements. Donald J. Stypula. August 1997, pp. 250-252.

Think twice about those tree grates. Barry M. Williams. August 1997, p. 253.

Thrifty Royal Oak administrator at the top of the heap. Michael McConnell. August 1997, p. 247.

To boldly go where no government has gone before: A common sense approach to environmental policy. State Senator Loren Bennett (R-Canton Township). August 1997, pp. 254.

Human Resources

Can you be sure you hired the right new employee for the job? Donald Sommerfeld. March, 1997, pp. 76-77.

Confused by the new alphabet soup in health care? Roselyn R. Parmenter. May 1997, p. 141.

Improving fire department diversity with reserves. Robyn Gorrell. July 1997, p. 225.

MML Legal Defense Fund provides assistance: Good News in Grandville labor relations decision. William C. Mathewson and Joseph W. Fremont. March 1997, pp. 70-71.

MML to offer Section 125 Plans for municipal employers. Tom Huntzicker. December 1997, pp. 404-405.

Selecting the best candidate for each job. Joseph W. Fremont. November 1997, p. 353

Insurance & Risk Management

Is you staff prepared to handle an emergency in city hall? Kevin C. Murphy. November 1997, pp. 354-355.

Fireworks tragedy in Charlevoix: Could it happen to you? Kurt Weiss. November 1977, p. 355.

Legislative changes will affect how you control unemployment costs. Jim Ward. June 1997, p. 174.

Midland uses employee safety program to lower workers comp costs. January/February 1997, pp. 28-29.

MML to offer Section 125 Plans for municipal employers. Tom Huntzicker. December 1997, pp. 404-405.

Understanding the important differences in insurance policies. Robert J. Kish, A.R.M. August 1997, p. 261.

Leadership

Elected Officials Academy Update. Joan Hutchison. September/October 1997, p. 310.

10 Habits of highly successful councils, by Carl H. Neu, Jr. November 1997, pp. 328-333.

A value-based prototype for 21st Century leadership, by Sheila Murray Bethel, November 1997, pp. 336-337.

Legislative Issues

A committed investment in Michigan transportation. State Sen. Philip E. Hoffman, November 1997, p. 351.

Election news wrap-up: Women's gains in local elections add real political visibility to issues. From the National League of Cities, January/February 1997, p.

The federal scene. William C. Mathewson. March 1997, pp. 64-66.

From start to finish: How municipal "lobbyists" made a difference in Lansing. Donald J. Stypula, March 1997, pp. 50-54.

"Legislative Coordinators" needed to spread the word to other local officials. March 1997, p. 60.

League President Guido leads on telecommunications. William C. Mathewson. March 1997, pp. 68-69.

Local, judicial candidates now subject to contribution limits. Michigan Secretary of State Candice S. Miller. November 1997, p. 323

Meet the MML Advocacy Team . . .March 1997. pp. 49, 52, 57, 65.

New legislation brings good changes for employers. John McCann, September/October 1997, p. 306.

New opportunities for fighting the good fight. Dan Gilmartin, March 1997, pp. 48-49.

The local message: Updating "back to the basics". Scott Schrager, March 1997, pp. 56-57.

Reckoning with term limits. Paul Hillegonds. March 1997, pp. 58-59.

Road funding agreement yields additional $40 million for municipalities. Donald J. Stypula. August 1997, p. 248.

31st Annual Legislative Conference. January/February 1997, pp. 9-13 & March 1997, pp. 61-63.

32nd Annual Legislative Conference. December 1997, pp. 399-403.

Transportation plan bring money to local government. State Rep. Clark Harder, November 1997, p. 350

Management

The automated five-year financial model: An emerging financial and management tool. Mark Nottley. January/February 1997, pp. 19-22.

A buyer's market for management audits. Mark Nottley. March 1997, p. 78.

Exploring alternative revenue sources. Mark Nottley. May 1997, p. 139.

Municipal focus on classification and compensation (pay) systems. Mark Nottley. July 1997, p. 223.

Prerequisites for a merit pay approach. Mark Nottley. December 1997, p. 406.

Search for Excellence. Mark Nottley, September/October 1997, p. 319.

Michigan Municipal League

League honors supporters of local government. Joan S. Hutchison, pp. 397-398, 405.

Local officials convene to learn: MML hosts 99th annual convention. members of the Michigan Municipal Communicators. December 1997, pp. 374-396.

MML to offer Section 125 Plans for municipal employers. Tom Huntzicker. December 1997, pp. 404-405.

1996-97 Annual Report. November 1997, pp. 338-349.

Ortonville Village President Susan Bess elected MML president for 1997-98; Six new Trustees join MML Board of Directors. Joan S. Hutchison. December 1997, pp.372-373

Public Service & Volunteerism

Sage advice for village and city officials: Get involved and work together to accomplish common municipal goals. Michael A. Guido. March, 1997, p. 47.

Retirement Issues

A closer look at index funds in a retirement portfolio. John McCann. June 1997, p. 173.

Change ahead: Defined contribution issues for 1997 in Michigan. John McCann. January/February 1997, pp. 14-15.

New legislation brings good changes for employers. John McCann, September/October 1997, p. 306.

Technology

Be an URL'y Bird. Annette Drew Owens. May 1997, p. 131

Calling all pagers: Remote-controlled beacons improve safety for schoolchildren. Tod Newcombe. July 1997, p. 201.

The coding of compliance: Local software development turns into capital venture. Tod Newcombe. May 1997, pp. 136-137.

http://www.farmington.mi.us: Farmington's Web Site: Learning from experience. Joe Ohren, Ph.D. May 1997, pp. 126-129.

The key to parking: Digital meters and keys unlock meters for West Hollywood. Tod Newcombe. May 1997, pp. 134-135.

MML makes a big splash for officials who surf the Web! Colleen Layton. September/October 1997, pp. 282-283.

NLC and PTI team up to prevent problems associated with the Year 2000. May 1997, p. 138.

What information will local officials find in MML's Web Site? September/October 1997, p. 283.

Youth

Calling all pagers: Remote-controlled beacons improve safety for schoolchildren. Tod Newcombe. July 1997, p. 201.

Creative marketing strategies for connecting with kids. Frank Benest and Debbie Thornton. July 1997, pp. 194-195.

Full Tilt opens at full throttle: Battle Creek's amazing new entertainment mall. Cherise Brandell. July 1997, pp. 198-199.

Plumbing new talent: At-risk students help poor neighborhoods conserve water. Tod Newcombe, July 1997, p. 206.

Rochester Villas Apartments in partnership with Troy police. Nicolette M. Kaptur. July 1997, pp. 204-205.

13 ideas to reach kids through marketing. Frank Benest and Debbie Thornton. July 1997, pp. 195, 197.

Youth at Risk: Your community's future and its greatest challenge! Ritchie L. Coleman. July 1997, pp. 202-203. ❖